2. Visas and travel documents

Please note that students are responsible themselves for ensuring that they have all the valid travel documents needed for the United Kingdom together with any visas required. For further details here, please visit:

<http://www.ukvisas.gov.uk/en/>

A letter of invitation can be issued upon request.

3. Access authorisations

Type Training trainees

Type Training is conducted within the SR Technics Diamond Hangar, which is outside the airport authority's security zone. A company security pass will be required, however, to access the Diamond Hangar and Training School. This can be collected from reception on arrival.

Aircraft visits airside

You may have to visit an aircraft that is located airside during a Type Training course. For this you will require a BAA airside visitor's pass; and to obtain such a pass, you will need to produce a photo ID such as your passport.

4. Protective clothing

SR Technics will provide a safety vest for aircraft visits if required. If you have safety shoes, please bring these with you.

5. Meeting point on the first day

Please meet at the Diamond Hangar reception at 08:45. Car parking is available in front of the hangar in the areas marked for visitors.

6. Accommodation
