CEO INSIGHT OWEN MCCLAVE

In February 2024, SR Technics appointed Owen McClave as its new CEO. He joined SR Technics in 2019 as Senior Vice President Engine Services. His professional experience includes key leadership roles at Pratt and Whitney and Lufthansa Technik in Ireland and Vector Aerospace UK (Airbus Helicopters) where he held the position of Managing Director. He obtained his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in business from Trinity College, Dublin and earned his FCMA designation in Accountancy from The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants.

Owen's leadership ensures that SR Technics consistently adheres to its mission. In this regard, he emphasized: SR Technics is the partner of choice for global aviation businesses that require innovative tailor-made solutions, compliant with world-class quality standards, that add value. Our unwavering dedication to innovation, excellence, and environmental responsibility propels us forward on our journey to becoming the leading, most customer-centric, and sustainable Engine focused MRO worldwide.

We dedicate ourselves to nurturing business development to cater to our customers' needs, while also investing in the continual growth and training of our personnel. SR Technics relies on our experienced team to support this vision, as in previous years to continue to build up further our tradition with 90 years of operational experience and serve as a first choice for impeccable technical support to over 500 customers worldwide.

Quality is not merely a benchmark we meet, it is our unique trademark. Our mission is to be your trusted partner on every flight.
